Nancy Wynne Tells of Invitations Already Issued for Ten Dances—She Wonders How the Debutantes Will Stand the Rush of Entertaining—Other Matters

WELL, the invitations are out thick and fast, just as I said. There are actually ten parties already on the way to date and hour. The first is George Woodard's, which is to be held tonight at the Whitehurst Valley Hunt Club...

The Stanley Flagg, Jr., who has just returned from Europe, have issued cards for a dance for Hope Montgomery on Friday night, September 29...

Now I ask you, how are the debs going to live through it? It's perfectly fierce. And that's speaking only of the October parties for which the invitations are already out...

As for the men, well I don't see how they'll manage it. You cannot go to business every day and be up until late in the morning, every night or so, and get away with it. Some are going to suffer. Either the party or the business, and unfortunately it's generally the latter...
